Legacy Journaling

The purpose of legacy journaling is to discover, communicate, and preserve your values, stories, wisdom, and blessings for future generations. It is a wonderful gift to your loved ones and yourself.

Join Jen every Tuesday in 2024 from 2:00pm-3:00pm for our new Legacy Journaling Group. Each week, we will have several writing prompts/questions, spanning all three stages of life (early life, mid life, and later in life/reflection). There will be time during the sessions for you to share your reflections if you're comfortable doing so. Sharing fosters a sense of community and provides an opportunity for feedback and connection.

Hardcover journals with 150 lined pages are available to purchase at the front desk for $10 each (or bring your own from home). Prior writing experience is not necessary, and if you miss a session, see Jen and she will get you caught up on the writing prompts for that week.

By the end of the year, you will have written and reflected on over 150 thought-provoking questions about your life, your memories, and your legacy.

The Healing Art of Foot Reflexology

Foot reflexology is a therapeutic technique that aims to restore balance and promote overall health. At the core is the concept that our feet are miniature maps of our entire body. Each area on the foot corresponds to a specific organ or system, and by applying pressure to these points, practitioners believe they can stimulate energy flow, release tension, and encourage the body's natural healing process.

Benefits include: stress reduction, improved circulation, pain relief, enhanced sleep, and detoxification. As individuals seek natural and non-invasive methods to support their health journey, foot reflexology is as a timeless practice that offers both relaxation and therapeutic benefits.

Trained foot reflexologist and Heritage Commons member, Angie Norton, will be offering appointments Wednesdays between 10am-2pm at the center beginning in January. The cost per session is $20 payable directly to Angie. Please reserve your day/time at the front desk.
